Oriental Exhibit.

Mrs. Daniel Shephardson, Jr., of Gasaway, W. Va., arranged to give a series of oriental exhibits during the week beginning October 1 at the Fairview Baptist church at New Fair Grounds. The following program for the week has been arranged, each number including a costumed character sketch:

Mrs. Daniel Shephardson, Jr.

Sunday morning—"Meditations in Tyre."

Sunday evening—"The Jew of Jericho."

Monday evening—"The Way in Old Japan."

Tuesday evening—"China and the Chinese."

Wednesday evening—"The Home of the Hindu."

Thursday evening—"On Horseback Through Palestine."

Friday evening, ladies exclusively—"Life in the Harem of Jerusalem."

For Miss Coplin.

Mrs. M. O. Goff gave a delightful luncheon at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon at her home on East Main street in honor of her cousin, Miss Martha Coplin, of Philadelphia, who is visiting her.

Dr. Jones to Speak.

Dr. Effie McCollum Jones who is now touring West Virginia in the interest of the suffrage cause, is a leader in the great woman movement of today. Dr. Jones has always been an ardent suffragist but not until the last two years, when the call for leaders was sounded so loudly, did she devote her entire time to the suffrage cause. Having been elected dean of Lombard college at Galesburg, Ill., Dr. Jones was ready to take up her new duties when she was prevailed upon to take the platform in the interest of suffrage. As an orator Dr. Jones is at once eloquent and forceful. She is a keen thinker and carries her discourses to a logical conclusion. She will speak at Bridgeport at 8 o'clock Tuesday night.

Dr. Jones has filled many positions of honor and trust among them the very responsible position of trustee for about twelve years of Lombard College, which institution conferred upon her the honorary degree of D. D., Dr. Jones being one of fewer than a half dozen women in the country to be so honored. Vice president of the Associated Charities of Waterloo, Ia., vice president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Waterloo and Barre, Vt., and vice president of the Iowa State Suffrage Association, are some of the positions filled by Dr. Jones. She is a member of the P. E. O., the King's Daughters, having been prominent in their international convention at Burlington, Ia., and was twice elected president of the Twin-City Ministerial Association.

Dr. Jones has been on the lecture platform for some time, having lectured many times on the "Passion Play and other subjects at chautauquas and similar gatherings.

Those who know Dr. Jones intimately think of her not as a lecturer or as a magnetic leader in a big cause, but as a home woman, the mother of two beautiful daughters, and a charming hostess over a home where many distinguished persons have been entertained.

Born on a farm and having received her very early education in the district school, Dr. Jones is thoroughly conversant with the problems that confront the farm man and woman and the residents of small communities. It was while a student at Lombard College that Dr. Jones met, as a classmate, B. W. Jones, to whom she was married as soon as they were graduated. At his death, some eighteen years ago, Dr. Jones assumed the responsibility of keeping the home and raising their two very interesting daughters. She is loved and admired for her sterling qualities by all who know her.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Fish Loaf.

Use cod, halibut or other deep sea fish; if near fresh water, any of the larger fish; steam over a deep dish until fish separates from the bones, break into flakes. Mix it well with a cup of stale bread crumbs, half teaspoon onion juice, one tablespoon lemon juice or vinegar, one tablespoon chopped parsley, two beaten eggs and enough of the fish liquor to make of proper consistency to pack. Season highly with salt and pepper. Pack into a buttered mold. Stand it in a pan of hot water, cover and bake in a moderate oven about half an hour or until loaf feels firm in center.

Cream one-half cup butter, work gradually into it the slightly beaten yolks of two eggs, one tablespoon lemon juice, a little salt and cayenne. Just before serving add one-half cup boiling water and stand over boiling water, stirring constantly until thick as custard, or if one does not care for so expensive a sauce use plain drawn butter sauce flavored with lemon juice, or chopped pickle may be used. Turn fish loaf out on warm platter, pour sauce over and garnish with parsley or watercress.

PLAYER DIES.

WAYCROSS, Ga., Sept. 29.—Palmer Bosworth, 14 years old, of Tampa, Fla., died here Friday of injuries received Thursday during a football game. His skull was fractured when he was tackled by two opposing players. The boy with his mother was visiting relatives.

TWO MEN KILLED.

ST. MARYS, Pa., Sept. 29.—Charles Zolenz and Charles Callahan, of Driftwood, were instantly killed when their automobile was demolished at a Pennsylvania railroad crossing at Cameron, near here, Friday. The engineer was unable to see the crossing because of a heavy fog.

Brightens One Up

There is something about Grape-Nuts food that brightens one up, infant or adult, both physically and mentally.

What is it?

Just its delightful flavor, and the nutriment of whole wheat and barley, including their wonderful body and nerve building mineral elements!

SILVER JUBILEE CELEBRATION IS HELD

Members of the Salem Lodge of Knights of Pythias Carry Out Big Program.

SALEM, Sept. 29.—An event of unusual interest occurred here last night in the final public meeting in the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the local lodge of Knights of Pythias. Two previous meetings had been held commemorative of the occasion. A sermon before the lodge on last Sunday and a full meeting of the members of the order at its regular session on Tuesday night at which meeting Hon. Samuel B. Montgomery, grand keeper of records and seal, made an extended address, dwelling upon the humanitarian principles and policies that the great Pythian order is trying to carry out in the care of the dependent widows and orphans of deceased members in the grand domain of West Virginia. This address has been very favorably commented upon by many who had the opportunity to hear it.

The meeting on Thursday night was one of the anniversary date proper of the organization of the lodge here, and of its institution on September 28, 1891. The charter membership list was composed of sixteen persons and of that number fourteen are still living, there having been only two deaths of the original members in the last twenty-five years.

The charter members were as follows: E. B. Robinson, E. F. Randolph, C. E. Reynolds, G. H. Gordon, Dr. E. A. Wilson, W. E. Leonard, J. W. Gordon, S. B. Davis, H. C. Smith, L. H. Bond, S. J. Davis, H. H. Davis, O. L. Rohrbach, Ray Randolph, J. L. Weekly, and J. H. Billingslea.

The last two names are the deceased members of the charter members.

The program of the evening as carried out was as follows, with C. C. Garlick, the present chancellor commander, presiding:

Brief history of Salem lodge No. 70, Knights of Pythias, and reading of charter, first original officers, list of past chancellors, and deceased members by C. A. Schutte, the present keeper of records.

Addresses were made by Hon. Charles A. Sutton, of Bridgeport; Grand Chancellor Thomas Ray, Dille, of Morgantown; Oscar C. Wilt, of Parkersburg; Mrs. Emma McKim, of Parkersburg, grand chief of the Pythian Sisters.

Reminiscences were reported by veteran members as follows: Edward B. Robinson, Dr. E. A. Wilson and William E. Leonard, Doctor Wilson dwelling upon the subject of "Salem as I knew it twenty-five years ago," that reminded all of the marvelous change in the last quarter of a century.

The next feature was the introduction of the veteran members present and reading of the names of the absent veterans as follows: E. B. Robinson, Dr. E. A. Wilson, W. E. Leonard, and Aaron Gaines, and the absent number E. F. Randolph and Charles E. Reynolds.

Judge James W. Robinson, grand vice chancellor of the grand domain of West Virginia, then in a clever way preceded by an appropriate address presented the gold plated jewels to the four veterans present in the presence of the large number of Knights, Pythian Sisters, and guests of honor present. Thursday closed an appropriate program to the quarter century history of the live local lodge of Salem No. 70, Knights of Pythias.

The banquet feature that followed at 10:30 in a three course service, tastefully served by the members of Sunshine Temple No. 10, Pythian Sisters:
